"Remember the times you've had here, remember when you're away."

My time has come once more to lift my green leaves proudly for my departing Seniors. I have seen them come, unknowing, but I see them leave with new ideas and meaning of Gulf Park. As Juniors, they learned to follow; as Seniors, to lead.

The individuals gave of themselves during the two years; no matter how small a part each person played, that part has lent character to the class. They have learned the meaning of the beloved Goat, that symbol which may have stood for victory alone when they first won, but as they grew with Gulf Park they found the sportsmanship and loyalty behind "His Majesty." They learned to win and to lose, the losses made them a better class, for no man can win forever. These losses and victories in which they were involved are but tiny particles of life in this big world, but they may have helped one individual to prepare for the greater world.

The activities that only Gulf Park can give will never be forgotten. The many beach parties which ended in singing around the fire or watching the moon come over the water. Trips to Ship and Huck where they enjoyed a more rustic life than on campus.

These scenes of the play they saw as Juniors, but during the intermission they realized that the friends made at Gulf Park are closer and clearer to them than they know; so they visited and talked about returning as Seniors.

The second act began September 12, 1957, as I watched the excited Seniors eagerly anticipating the great year. The wonderful excitement that was theirs at their first serenade around the fountain. There is no need to explain the Sailor Hats, for that is the most sacred thing to a Gulf Park Senior, and only she knows, deep down in her heart, the actual meaning of it. Senior smoker, a place of fun, retreat, and most of all the place where one learns to know and love each Senior as a sister, I know, because my branches brush past those windows a million times a day.

Seniors, the curtain is about to fall and the lights are growing dim, you have only a few weeks to remain beneath my sturdy branches. As each day passes, remember there are still scenes to come. The climax scenes are most important, enjoy them and make the most of them, for they will never be acted exactly the same way, nor will their opportunities ever knock again. Let each tear that falls be a tear of joy, of the happy moments together, and the future that Gulf Park has prepared for you.

I will continue to shade your smoker for many more years, but a part of you will be with me, and part of me with you.

Deans' List

For Quarter III ending March 17, 1958

The college year is divided into two semesters of two quarters each. The Deans' List is published for each quarter. To be eligible for the Deans' List a student must have at least a B plus average and no grade below B. The student's course of study must be the equivalent of at least 15 hours or 4 units, excluding Physical Education.

In addition to making the scholastic average as mentioned above in order to be placed on the Deans' List a student must have a record of good conduct as a citizen.

SNOW

"Snow is forecast today for the Gulfport area". This announcement was received at Gulf Park with much enthusiasm. Many of our Southern girls had been robbed of nature's most potent gift—snow, and now they too were to share in its gaiety as the snow fluttered down over the trees and walkways. The high school built a snow man and the college classes had a free for all. But amidst all this gaiety no one seemed to mind that school had not been called off—you see there was not enough snow to cover a man's handkerchief. But then amidst much cheering and wild anticipation, school was called off as promised—at a quarter of four.

Secretarial Science

February 12, 1958, marked a very important day to Gulf Park students. It was the day of our first snow of the year and the night of the Secretarial Science Club informal supper for the members and the models in the Style Show.

A wonderful meal of fried chicken was served and everyone enjoyed the juke-box music and the supper.

SPRING CONCERT

March 7, the Gulf Park College Glee Club under Miss Donna Jo Miesse presented their annual Spring Concert. First on the program was a sacred number by Bach entitled Now Let Every Tongue Adore Thee. Other selections that were very favorably received were Sweet Little Jesus Boy with Glenely Withey as soloist, Morning Comes Early (Slovakian Folk Song) and their final number Waters Ripple and Flow arranged by Deems Taylor. The Glee Club made a very nice appearance in their pastel formals and did a wonderful job musically. Those who had solo parts were: Phyllis Pierce, Susie Roberts, Esther Winegarden, Luanne Brady, Marty Garver, Jimmylee Listenbee, Laura Hussey, Gleneley Withey, and Laine Vasilopoulos. Miss Marianne Bruce accompanied the group.

PHI THETA KAPPA INITIATION

On Wednesday, February 26, the members and initiates of Phi Theta Kappa gathered in the Y-Hut for dinner. Following the dinner, the initiation service was held. The nine who qualified for this national honorary fraternity were: Jackie Villars, Barbara Bentley, Martha Wilburn, Kay Burchfield, Pat Murphy, Vi Jo Talbott, Shirley Gann, Esther Winegarden, and Sally Geraci. Lucy Ann Eppes, President, gave the oath and told the history of the organization and its function. Linda Lawrence, Vice-President, gave the description and meaning of the Phi Theta Kappa plaque; and Doris Starling, Secretary and Treasurer, presented each new member with the club flower after explaining its significance. The initiates then lit their candles from the Flame of Knowledge. The guests included Dean Rine, Mrs. William Sadler, Col. Wink, and Carol Burnell. Dean Sadler is sponsor.

DANCE RECITAL

On Wednesday evening, February 26, the Gulf Park College School of Dance presented their annual Spring Recital. Miss Lucille Constantino directed the group and presented various types of dances such as ballet, toe classic, acrobates, and a Spanish number. Especially entertaining was the Chinese Love Story that climaxed the program. The story was centered around a princess (Judy Coleman) who rejects gifts and an offer of marriage for permission to marry the man of her choice (Jimmylee Listenbee). She and her lover are refused permission to marry and the king (Judy Pegues) orders the lover out of the palace. Grief and then death follow. Every one who attended was amazed with the beauty and grace of the students. Congratulations to you Miss Constantino and also Miss Marianne Buce who accompanied the group.

WELCOME NEW STUDENTS

Tammy Howl extends a warm welcome to the new second semester students.

The new students well represent the great land of "Dixie": a returning Senior, Jane Sanders from Marietta, Oklahoma — welcome back, Jane; college special, Suellen Caperton from Dallas, Texas; also from Dallas is a Junior, Bebe Kohen; Freshmen Margaret Ann DeVaughn, Augusta, Georgia; Sharyn Fisher, Miami Beach, Florida, and Rosemary Young, Kingsport, Tennessee.

We hope they will find our unique Gulf Park spirit and learn to make our beautiful campus their school home.

COLLEGE GIRLS?

Minnie Minchell . .

Hi Kids,

Well, here I am again, I hope all of you had a nice time during Spring Vacation, I must say I did ! ! !

It seems that styles have changed at Gulf Park. Some of the dresses I have seen lately look like sacks, and you see the same dress on so many people. Susan C., don't tell me you have changed again? Let us in on your secret. Davie Sue, what is your big attraction in Pensacola? Must be nice . . . So sorry the Juniors lost the Snow Ball fight . . . Rixey, are all 25 going to be tall ? ? Merritt, you would make a fine tackle for someone's team. Sally S., I think you should stop "commentating", don't you? By the way, girls, we don't hold dances in the barn — Libby B., don't you think you should watch your remarks . . . Linda, have you got many houses out of those magazines? Congratulations to you, too. Player, don't they have phones at Springhill ? ? Bettes, don't you think you should watch your men, why don't you give some of them to the less fortunate —— Susan S., I love the way you talk. Juniors, have you been losing things lately ? ? Judy Kimmel, where did you shop for beds? My, it was foggy over the Gulf that night, wasn't it, Sherry M. — Zane and Davie, being the composers you are, we might invite you to join Tammy staff. How many white dresses do you need, Carolyn R. — —Sally Head, who were you imitating Kid Day? Hey, Wally, you CAN look feminine if you try — Really, Dorothy, we know Sue's your "room"!—Sue, congratulations to you and your court—Jackie, what is your secret weapon? — Beverly Bell, the Srs. thank you for your hospitality in Pensacola!

Celinda, my, we do have our embarrassing moments, don't we ? Judy Woods, heard someone gave you a frog, who was it? — Susie Jones, do you make a habit of cooking eggs during study hall ? ? ? Sara Easley—do you always lose track of time? — Ann Beth, do you have to squeal like that? — Can Rudolfo send anything, but a Special Delivery, Doris? — Lucy Ann, going to school on Monday doesn't particularly appeal to you does it? Uh-Oh!, Dixie, do you have an echo, and since you have everything, are you planning to get a mink? . . . . Do you think your apartment will hold everything, Jane R. . . . . Where did you say Lee was, Sandy? How many months did you say Schneider? — Tiger and Jane S.; shall we set up a wrestling ring on Senior Hall? . . . . Barbie, what is it that kills the pain? . . . Oh! the trials and tribulations of an actress, Sherry Bryan . . . My! Little Man's is a nice place on Saturday afternoons, Barbara L. . . . Isn't it a little late for Christmas cards, Marcia? Suzanne, do you really like to ride in the rain? Molly, please don't make a habit of sleeping with your shoes and the lights on!! What kind of buddies do you have, Harriet Beason? . . . . Another woman on the phone, Jahrea ? ? ? . . . . Wish I could go to bed at 11:00, Ellen, do you always paint in the middle of the night ? ? Liz, what type of mascara do you use? Oh, you say it's made by Jonathan Swift . . . .

I know I left a few of the Seniors out, this time, but I couldn't say anything without possibly saying too much. Beware next time!

So long

Minnie

Sigma Psi

On Friday, February 21, the Sigma Psi's invited five ladies from Gulfport out to the college to speak to them on sorority rushing on university campuses. The ladies represented the sorority of which they were members while in college. They were Mrs. Sam Fowlkes, Alpha Omicron Pi; Mrs. Robert Taylor, Pi Beta Phi; Mrs. Ernest Martin, Delta Gamma; Mrs. Cleve Allen, Chi Omega; and Mrs. Roy Johnson, Kappa Kappa Gamma. It was an informal gathering in which each of the ladies told the history of her sorority and gave some helpful hints to the girls who are planning to enter a university next fall. The girls then asked various questions as to what they could expect and what would be expected of them. Coffee, tea, cherry tarts, and nuts were served to the guests and the girls.

KID DAY

"Mary had a little lamb, a little lamb."

This familiar strain could be heard as early as 7:30 a.m. on Wednesday, March 5, as the sassy sashes and the freckled noses of young sprites skipped around our campus. It was KID DAY. The mood was gay and everyone participated enthusiastically. At noon a prize of fifty cents worth of food from the Y-Hut was awarded to the girls with the best costumes, Sally Head and Marianne Gudas. Sally was a little girl playing dress-up in a very colorful outfit. Marianne dressed as a little girl in middy blouse and short skirt with a "sailor boy" hat.

GULF PARK ON THE AIR

If you have been listening to your radio on Wednesday evenings, no doubt you have heard the new 15 minute program Gulf Park On the Air. This program is new and is presented by the various organizations at Gulf Park College pertaining to our life and activities here at Gulf Park. The program begins with the school Alma Mater and thus far has been presented by the High School Radio class and the Music Department.

The first program was a fantasy dramatization "The Cloud that Couldn't Cry", produced by the High School Radio Class. Others that have recently been presented are: The Necklace, by Gay Demauss, "Illusions", and a comedy dramatization, "Away from It All".

Students representing the Music Department of Gulf Park College in the program were Laine Vasilopoulos, Rachel Lancaster, Susie Roberts and Susan Conway.

DIPLOMA RECITAL

On Friday, February 21, the College Auditorium was the setting for Doris Starling's Diploma Recital in Speech. Doris gave a superb dramatization of Oh, The Brave Music, by Dorothy Evelyn Smith. Doris wrote this dramatization as a project for Advance Acting class.

At the beginning of the program Doris gave an introduction of Ruan Ashley, the character whom she played. During the process of the dramatization, Doris portrayed Ruan at Chapel, On the Moor with David, at Tea at Cobbets with Uncle Aleric, In Ruan's Bedroom at Cobbets, and At the Crossroads with David.

Mardi Gras Ball

Saturday night, February 8, Gulf Park had their annual Mardi Gras Ball. The ball began with the presentation of the Atheson King and Queen and their court. As the traditional grand march commenced, the pageantry began with the members of the court: Ladies Sue Mueller, Jackie Villars, Davie Sue Olson, Lettie Jane Read, Sandra Shaw, Susan Conway, Celinda Coon, and Lucy Ann Eppes. The Court procession laid the setting for the grand entrance of her Majesty the Queen, Dixie King. Silence prevailed as her Majesty approached her royal throne.

Queen Dixie King and her King and the Court were seated awaiting the introduction of the visiting Bit and Spur King and Queen and their court: Duchesses Dorothy Orme, Margaret McGinley, Lee Rixey, Sally Head, Knollene Lovelace, Pat Wallace, Judy Purcell and Marty Nourse.

Following their entrance came her Majesty Sallie Player and her King. After paying homage to the Atheson King and Queen, they paraded to their thrones to observe the merriment of the Maskers. The Maskers came in throwing confetti and all kinds of trinkets to the audience. After the dance of the two Courts and Maskers, the actual ball began.

The Queens

Queen Dixie King, reigning over the Atheson Court, looked radiant as she paraded down the aisle to join her court and take her seat on the royal throne. She was a queenly sight in her strapless white nylon tulle floor length formal. The bodice was shirred and delicately decorated with pink artificial flowers on the skirt. Her crown was of stars and rhinestones.

Sallie Player, Queen of the Bit and Spur Court, reigned in a white silk organza gown. The bodice was lace which continued to form lace panels down the back of the skirt. Sallie's rhinestone tiara set off the shine of her fair hair and added a sparkle to her blue eyes as she took her place on the throne.

GYMKHANA

On February 23, 2:30 p.m., the Bit and Spur Club presented Gymkhana.

The program began with the Grand Parade consisting of six girls on horseback. Following the Grand Parade were nine events: barrel race, clothes race, flag race, lead race, musical chairs, crazy race, potato race, thread the needle, and the relay race. The program ended with a square dance performed by the Certificate Riders on horseback.

Kadelia Long gave a fine exhibition during the intermission.

Dr. Dwyer, Dean Sadler, and Dr. Cooke awarded the ribbons to the winners of each event. Sara Bogy gave her performance as a clown.

Congratulations to Miss Sharp and her Certificate Riders for a fine show.

Pensacola Trip

The Pensacola trip to Whiting Field proved to be the exciting event it always is for the Gulf Park girls.

We left campus early Saturday, February 15, and to the Navy's surprise arrived two hours early. As we arrived, we were met and escorted to the bachelor officer's quarters where we proceeded to make plans for the week-end.

At 3:30 we met our dates at the Acrach where the usual round of Mason-Dixon line questions were fired. Once again we boarded the busses and returned for dress procedure.

At last, 8:30 arrived, and charming as ever the Gulf Park students once more met their dates. Corsages and dance cards were given as we entered the room decorated in red and white cards.

Sunday morning we went to church, and in the afternoon toured Whiting Field. We were able to sit at the controls of the planes and to go through the imaginary procedure of flying.

As all good things come to an end, we waved to the multitude of men on the lawn, "so long, thanks for the wonderful time".

The Natchez Trip

Bright and early on Saturday, March 11, seventeen girls and two chaperons, Mrs. Jones, and Dean Sadler, set out on a chartered bus for Natchez, Mississippi.

The first stop was at Jackson, Mississippi, where the group was taken on a guided tour of the beautiful State Capitol. After lunch the trip continued on to Vicksburg, where a tour through the National Cemetery proved a very educational, as well as, interesting experience.

And then . . . on to Natchez. After room assignments, and a delicious dinner, the next scheduled event was the Confederate Pageant, or Ball. It was truly a trip back into time and it very beautifully depicted scenes from Mississippi's past—from the Indian days up to the Civil War.

Early Sunday morning, the tours of the spacious and elegant old antebellum homes began. The magnificent houses, enhanced by many beautiful fixtures, furniture styles, and relics of the past, were a sight well worth seeing. All day was spent in touring the homes, ten of which were visited.

Sunday night, a very enjoyable program of Negro spirituals was held in the Beulah Baptist Church.

Monday morning the group said good-bye to Natchez and headed back down south, going by way of Baton Rouge. Here, Louisiana's State Capitol was visited and lunch was eaten in the Capitol cafeteria. After lunch, the next event on the agenda was a tour through L.S.U.'s campus, which, needless to say, was enjoyed by all.

After leaving Baton Rouge, the last stop was at the White Kitchen in Slidell, for hamburgers and doughnuts.

Arriving at Gulf Park Monday night, the group felt happy and privileged to have seen some of the many interesting sights of Mississippi and Louisiana.

Merit Award

On Tuesday morning, February 25, an exceptional award of merit was given to Anne Shaver, a high school Senior. This certificate of merit is given to the people who achieve the highest score on the Scholarship Qualifying Test. There are 7,300 finalists in this year's program and it is from this group that the 1958 Merit Scholars will be selected. The winners of the Scholarship will be annuonced on May 1. Many certificate winners who do not receive merit Scholarships will be offered scholarship help through some other source.

To Bonnie

The 1958 Gymkhana was dedicated to Bonnie, the goat, who was killed on February 23, by a pack of dogs.

Bonnie had been the school mascot since she was born in 1955 in our stables. She was buried behind the stable beside "Mac" one of the horses that died last year. They were inseparable companions while both were living.

Bonnie will always be remembered in the hearts of the Gulf Park students.

Delta Chi Award Cup

Once again on February 25, in our Tuesday morning Assembly, the Cup Award for the sorority having the highest average for the quarter was awarded. The cup was won by Delta Chi Sigma. Dean Sadler presented the award to Sue Mueller, Delta Chi's President.

MARDI GRAS IN NEW ORLEANS

Holiday! And off to New Orleans went groups of Gulf Park girls for "the day that care forgot." Into the GPC suites at the Roosevelt Hotel different classes and their chaperones congregated to see Mardi Gras. Most of the time was spent watching the ever passing parades put on by different organizations of New Orleans. All of the floats were beautifully decorated to a central theme of the parade with horsed sheiks of the club riding along side. Nearly two million people thronged in the streets as disguised men on the float threw glass beads and favors to the crowd.

Fair weather and nice accommodations made the well planned trip enjoyed by each girl, and milling through the crowds in the French Quarter during Mardi Gras and eating in the French restaurants were added features.

One of the main highlights of the weekend was made by a group of Senior girls who received invitations to Rex and Comus Balls held Tuesday night. At each ball an exquisitely costumed king and queen entered with their court to ascend their thrones and reign over the ball.

No one could decide on what was most outstanding at either ball, for each was an experience long to be remembered in one's years at Gulf Park.

SENIORS WIN!

This year it is getting to be a proved fact that when the High School and Seniors get together for a play-off in a tournament, the students and faculty will witness some of the best sportsmanship, class spirit and class unity that has ever been displayed at Gulf Park.

The basketball tournament proved to be just that. On March 8, 1958, the Seniors led by Captain Jackie Villars defeated Captain Pat Murphy's Juniors. On March 10, The High School Skippers led by Captain Jane Spencer defeated the Juniors, eliminating the Juniors from the tournament.

The tension of the big game between the Seniors and High School began at 6:00 a.m., March 11, when the Skippers invaded Hardy with a pep rally. Screams of "Who's going to win The Goat?" were heard all day as the excitement mounted in both classes.

Four o'clock finally came, and the two teams were on the court waiting for the whistle to begin the game. The game was very close and the score at the end of the first half was High School 23 and the Seniors 22. The Seniors pulled ahead to win 43-36.

His Majesty, the Goat, was presented to the Seniors at dinner. Congratulations, Seniors!

Valentine Sweethearts

A dramatic close to Valentine's Day took place on the eve of February 14. Lovely young ladies took their places in the Dining Hall for the annual Valentine Banquet. Valentine Sweethearts was the theme of decorations. Each table was bedecked with a special valentine for each student, which was a cup of candy hearts and a valentine card. Gracing the center of the table was a doll dressed in white lace and red hearts standing on a mirror. Red candles reflected the romantic atmosphere for such an occasion. Keeping the tradition, our Alma Mater was the perfect close.

Queen For a Day

"Would you like to be Queen for a Day" was the cry of the Seniors the last week in February. The Seniors sold chances to the other students in order to make money for their school gift. The drawing was held Friday night, February 28, at release. Anne Phillips, a Junior, won the honor. On Tuesday, March 3, the Seniors served and waited on Anne's every need. Anne had breakfast in bed, free class cuts, and clothes washed. All in all, it was a pleasure for the Seniors to have such a wonderful Queen.

West Indies Cruise

Early in the morning March 18, thirty-five students and chaperones set out for the West Indies Cruise. Excited about our new adventure, we left Gulf Park by bus to go to New Orleans where we were to take a plane to Miami. However, our flight was late; so we devided and took two different flights. Some of us arrived at Pier 3 on time, while others were late. At sailing time the second group had not arrived, but we were told that the ship would be held for Dr. Cooke as we could not sail without him. Forty-five minutes later he arrived and the S. S. Evangeline immediately set sail with a fine send-off. The ship's combo played calypso music as we left Miami and sailed into the blue waters of the Caribbean.

For two days we sailed, arriving at 12:30, Thursday afternoon, in Port Antonio, Jamaica. Everyone was up on the deck to see us dock. We were met by a native calypso band and all the native people ready to show us their land. That afternoon we went river rafting on the Rio Grande. This was a seven mile voyage on a raft- hand made of bamboo poles. Two passengers sat on the raft while the rafter stood at the front and poled through the water and over the rapids. In this way we saw much of the countryside of this part of Jamaica. Along the river the playing children would come to the raft to beg for money as we passed.

That night we went to the Titchfield Hotel for a floor show. This consisted of native dancers (and they were native dancers), more calypso music, and entertainment by the staff on the ship. Among them were a singer, two dancers, and a very good hypnotist. After the show we swam in the hotel's two beautiful swimming pools. As we set sail again that night, the islanders were there to send us on our way.

The next morning as we arose for breakfast we were coming into Kingston, Jamaica. The day was spent in sightseeing and shopping in the famous straw markets. This was a very pretty city set in the midst of beautiful mountains. That night we went to the Glass Bucket which was a beautiful night club open under the stars. There again we were entertained by the natives. This was our first experience at seeing the tru "limbo" enacted. Sailing again that night we arrived Sunday morning in Ciudad Trujillo. Here too, we were met by the natives and shown their city. This was a very modern city with many beautiful hotels and buildings. We brushed up on our history, as it was here that Columbus lived.

When we returned to the ship late that afternoon, Dr. Cooke had a pleasant surprise for us. Through his arrangements the sailors and officers from a United States Navy ship, which was docked next to us, come over for a dance. We certainly had a wonderful time that evening.

The next morning we awoke as we were coming into San Juan, Puerto Rico. San Juan was a very modern city along with its old city. That evening was one that we shall remember for a long time. We went to the three weeks old Intercontinental Hotel where Don Cornell was appearing. He put on a fine show for us, and some of us were lucky enough to talk to him and even to have our pictures made with him.

Tuesday morning we arrived at St. Thomas in the Virgin Islands. This was about the favorite stop for all of us. The town was so quaint nestled in the mountains surrounded with the beautiful water. A group of us spent the afternoon swimming along its beaches while others toured the mountains and visited the famous Bluebeard Castle Hotel. It was here that we felt the earthquake. All the islanders and visitors were quite shocked at this, but as it proved to be nothing more than a slight quiver, we continued our sightseeing and shopping. We found St. Thomas to be the best shopping place.

We boarded the ship for the last time in St. Thomas, for that night we sailed for home. Those last two days were spent in sun-tanning. One of these nights Gulf Park celebrated its twenty-first cruise by having a large cake with all aboard taking part in the celebration. Also that same night Judy Kimel celebrated her twentieth birthday. The next night the Captain gave his farewell party. We certainly enjoyed this. Afterwards we all dressed for the Masquerade party. Some of the costumes were quite original, and Line Otey and Harriet Hall were among those to win prizes. The last night was Talent Night. This was when part of the crew sang and danced for us. We were certainly entertained with their talent. Gulf Park was in on the act too. Gleneley Whitney gave an excellent performance. The show ended with six Gulf Park girls presenting a can-can dance. Quite a hit!

With mixed emotions we viewed the Miami horizon on Friday morning. Home land looked good, yet we certainly hated to leave the S. S. Evangeline, which had been such a wonderful home for ten days. After going through customs and getting settled in the States again, we went to the Chateau Motel on the beach. From there we went to the Surf Club for lunch and swimming as guests of Sally Head and her parents. The club was very pretty and we had delicious food. That evening boys from the University of Miami came over and we had a dance. Again we thoroughly enjoyed ourselves.

Early the next morning we boarded the bus for our trip home. We stopped in Lake Wales, Florida, to see the Singing Tower which is a beautiful tower set among the orange and grapefruit trees in a gorgeous garden.

All of us would like to thank Dr. Cooke, Mrs. Forster, Miss Kircher, and Miss Constantino for all they did for us. Without them we could never have made such a grand trip and had such a wonderful experience. And so we arrived back at Gulf Park Sunday evening, very happy, for we had a trip that we would never forget, our first cruise.

The Freshmen Line

Sometimes I wonder just how it would be
If both sight and hearing were taken from me
Forever.

Sounds of summer rain and soft warbling birds,
Sweet strains of music and tender spoken words,
Gone forever.

Sounds of the city hustling in day,
The noise of the masses as they hasten on their way,
Gone forever.

The majesty of a mount air that causes me to thrill,
The fury of the ocean that is unconquered still,
Gone forever.

The freshness of the seasons I love best of all
Gone forever.

But blessed with hearing ear and seeing eye.
I pray all could be as rich as I
Forever.

Rachel Lancaster (Freshman)

I am alone in the world
A person with everyone a friend
But none my missing half.

People come and go
In a frantic merry-go-round
Of sight and sound,
Of reds and yellows and blues,
And brass and burning sun,
Of tranquil nights and pain-filled days.

Here I live alone,
Neither above nor below the others,
An entity within myself.

A love comes
And goes.

All are fleeting, nothing
Real and lasting reaches me
Because my soul only is this.

Mostly I find loneliness there.

Sometimes peace, rarely joy,
Or perfection.

My sorrow is greater, deeper—
My happiness more full and pure,
My sensations are more poignant,
My love more piercing
Than all the rest
Because these alone are mine.

Don't try to understand me.

I am you.

Better Be Safe

United States Senator Harry F. Byrd reminds us that the dollar has shrunk to less than a 50-cent-dollar since 1940, and even lost two cents of its purchasing power within the last year.

Though inflation destroys the value of one's savings and life insurance, millions of people seem to like it. It inflates the spirit and generates optimism. Easy money makes for ready cash, stimulates trade, and people get the feeling that we are in a New Era, in which prosperity is perpetual—that our government has everything under control—that we can never have another depression.

Sound economists, however, agree that our country is now in an over-spent, over-borrowed, over-consumed condition. So money becomes tight. This amazing land not only produces more food than its people can consume, but its machines can make more things that its people can buy.

Fortunately, the American people seem to be coming to their right senses. They resent and resist high taxes and cry out to the Congress to economize, while demanding tax relief. This movement could become a ground-swell as a nation of free spenders well knows that thrift is the key to our economy.

Your bank, which handles other people's money, would not be doing its full duty to its customers nor be serving the best interests of the community if it failed to emphasize the long proven practice of thrift as essential to our prosperity.

The man who pays his debts promptly, spends a little less than he makes and saves a part of what he earns, need have no fear of either inflation or deflation, for he is prepared to meet tomorrow's uncertainties.

It's always better to be safe than sorry, and wise are that government and its people who refuse to squander their substance.

Expect the best but prepare for the worst, and reduce your worries. There is no material security on earth more confronting in a pinch than to have a little ready cash where you can put your hands on it when you most need it.
